CHAUFFEUR ACCUSED.
Charged in Long Beach With Having Led Girl Astray—Sent to the County Jail.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES) LONG BEACH, May 17.—Emo Weller, a chauffeur who operates an auto for hire, is in the County Jail to answer a charge, which the police say he has admitted. Shortly after midnight Chief Williams picked up Beale Col-lina, a sixteen-year-old girl living in Alhambra. She was in company with Weller. At headquarters she broke down and charged her escort with leading her astray. Weller admitted this and also confessed that for several weeks he has been running his auto between Long Beach and San Pedro, soliciting and enticing young boys and girls to visit houses of ill repute in San Pedro. He also said he was in the same business for six months in Pasadena.
A warrant was issued charging him with a violation of section 213 of the statutes which provides a heavy fine and imprisonment for enticing. He will be arraigned before Justice Bryson Monday morning.

CATCH ALLEGED MONEY THIEF.
SAN BERNARDINO, May 17.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Pete Lafata, an Italian, is in jail charged with the theft of a money sack containing several hundred dollars from Mrs. Lottie Blair, manager of a local dairy. Lafata had paid a bill owing to the woman, and thus caught sight of the sack. For three hours he shadowed her carriage, watching for an opportunity to grab the coin. As he fled with the sack sitting in the pocket, he was followed by the accused, and with rifles guarded him until officers arrived.

CRIME BRIEFS.
Repents Stabbing Himself.
GLOBE (Ariz.) May 17.—Archie Monroe, a miner, yesterday stabbed himself in the left breast with a pocket knife, in an attempt at suicide.
The blade, striking a rib, was deflected downward, missing the heart. Repenting his rash act, Monroe walked a mile to the County Jail, and, unobserved, went to bed in an unoccupied cell, where he was found by an officer an hour afterward. He will recover.

NONE THE WORSE FOR APPEAR-

Says He Was not so Nervous on the Witness Stand as Reporters Described Him to Be—Attends Services in Jail With His Mother, Who Makes Three-Hour Visit.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.
POUGHKEEPSIE (N. Y.) May 17.— Fatigued after his three days' appearance upon the hearing before Justice Morschauer to determine the question of his sanity, and the trying ordinal of last night, brief though it was, upon the witness stand, Harry K.
Thaw slept soundly through the night in the Sheriff's room in the courthouse, and today was up as usual at 8:30 a.m.
He looked at all the morning papers, and told Father Haven that he did not think he was as nervous on the stand as some of the reporters described him.
He said that he had tried to be careful of what he said, and he thought it was his extreme caution that caused his apparent nervousness.

He was tired, he said, when he went on the stand after the long court session. He also said that the changing of stenographers just after he took the stand caused him some confusion. He was glad that the trial was over. He said he had been told by his experts that his conduct on the stand had prejudiced his case, and he felt some discouragement.

Mrs. William Thaw, his mother, arrived here at 12 o'clock, and Thaw sent a note to Dr. Pilgrim asking him to call and see her. Thaw wished to have his mother cheer up for her long journey to Pittsburgh, and as she is not very well, he particularly requested the doctor not to say anything to cause her anxiety. The note did not reach Dr. Pilgrim in time for him to get to the courthouse before Mrs.
Thaw left, shortly after 3 o'clock, for New York.

Thaw and his mother attended the services conducted in the jail for the prisoners, who used the hymn books purchased by Thaw for the jail.

Justice Morschauer will go to White Plains tomorrow to sit there for a week. He will return to his home here the latter part of the week, having in the meantime received the brief in the case from Messrs. Jerome and Graham, and he has promised to hand down his decision on the following Monday.

Tusculum Porch Shades—The Best

An extra room in your house—and one of the pleasantest you have—may be gained by the use of porch shades.

But there are porch shades and porch shades—good, bad and indifferent. Ours are the really good sorts. Don't confound them with ordinary bamboo or other screens. They have nothing in common, either in appearance or actual workmanship. The designs present a rich, artistic appearance, the style and finish are superior, and the lasting benefit and satisfaction derived from them prove that the best is always the cheapest in the end. Ask our salesmen to show you "Tusculum" Porch Shades.

Correct-Linen Suits for Women

$10.00 and Higher

A linen suit doesn't always give good lines. Unless cut by a master hand it is apt to conform amiably, but unstylishly, to any slackness of figure.

These linen suits are not of that sort. They have immensely correct lines; they are built by makers known the country over; perfect in cut and finish to the slightest details.

Plain poplinettes and linens in white, pink, light blue and lavender. New striped linens in blue and white or brown and white; a most complete, desirable line, at $10 and higher.

Laces for Summer Gowns

Now a word as to our readiness to supply you with the laces which will have an important part in the prettiest gowns of the summer.

New allovers in real laces; in Venise and baby Irish—exactly the thing for trimming graduating frocks, lingerie waists, etc.; flat net; bands, edges and galloons in every width; black, white and cream Venise and flat bands and gal-loons to match.

Less expensive laces—copies of real Chantilla insertions to match, for fancy work purposes; various widths, from 2 to 6 inches, at 15c to 40c a yard; remarkably dainty patterns, and shown in diversity.

A Silk Petticoat to Order for Only $10.50

Made to your particular measures by our Mme. Baecker, whose Dressmaking Parlors are on the fourth floor of this store. You arrange all the details, first, at the Silk Section.

Choose from any color of our best 19-inch eighty-five cent taffetas; select the style you prefer from the made-up models on display at the Silk Section, and we will have made any size petticoat, from 22 to 30 waist measure, and any length up to 40 inches. for only $10.50

Waist measures or lengths over these, will be made for fifty cents extra.
We guarantee satisfactory work; better silks, better style and better workmanship than you can secure in any ready-to-wear $10.50 petticoat.

We will also make to order silk dresses from any piece of fancy colored silk in the Silk Section.

20-inch, $1 Silk; Dress Complete, $37.50 $5 allowance for trimmings.

20-in., $1.25 Silk; Dress Complete, $41.50 $5 allowance for trimmings.

20-in., $1.50 Silk; Dress Complete, $45.00
$5 allowance for trimmings.

These figures are for a fifteen-yard pattern; if more silk is necessary, an extra charge will be made, of course. Black silks may be made up to order; prices depending upon quality of the silk, and the style of dress desired.

A Remarkable Sale of Veil Pins and Brooches

The manufacturer of these charming veil pins and brooches—well known, by the way, and a seller to some of the foremost jewelers of the country—thought a dollar in the hand was worth two tied up; so when our resident New York buyer made him an offer for the whole of his season's samples it wasn't long before they were on their way by express to us. On Saturday they arrived; by Monday night the majority of them will have new owners—and highly delighted ones, too, if we're any judges of value and desirability.

Why, in the veil pins alone, there are honestly dozens of different patterns; in fact, scarcely any two are alike; there are delicate designs in skeleton patterns with pearl studgings; richly chased designs; pins set with jade, coral, tourmaline and like stones; filigree styles; silver pins in Dutch patterns; solid tortoiseshell; scores of new ideas, all in the best of taste and very carefully executed. We've divided them into three lots, at three prices:

$1.75 and $2.00 Values $1.00
$2.25 and $2.50 Values $1.25 $3.00 to $5.00 Values $1.75

Then we've a lot of jade and matrix turquoise brooches, which are equally as appropriate for veil pins as for their originally intended use; squares, oblong designs, ovals, rectangles and odd shapes; set in gold; values $1 to $1.50, for one price 50c

Drapery Sale Continues

A talked-about and a successful sale—indeed it has been—this selling of first-class draperies at half price, or very near it.

And because the values are so extraordinarily good, many women who only heard from others of the sale last week will want to come in for themselves this week; so we continue the reductions on curtains, draperies and like articles.

This week, full size couch covers; 95c formerly $1.25, for 90c Another line, suitable also for drapes, 90c at 50c; two for 90c Single portieres, in odd patterns, Half at exactly

Hamocks of the best qualities and of well-known makes; $1.50 to $5.00 each. Baby hamocks, too, for little tots. Many other special bargains, which can't even get newspaper mention. You'll want to look around for yourself, to appreciate what the stock-reduction really means in the way of noteworthy values.

Fine Blankets at $4.95

That We Value at $6.50 a Pair

But we secured them below the market price, measured them with our standard, added our regular profit—and so instead of $6.50 they are $4.95 here. But only enough of them for Monday's and Tuesday's buyers, so be spry.

Eleven-quarter white blankets; 90 per cent wool; the little cotton in them simply serves the very useful purpose of making them hard to shrink, and adding to their wearing qualities; they are ribbon bound, with 2-inch ribbon; borders of pink or blue; a splendid quality for home use; and well worth hurrying after at a saving of $1.55 on each pair.

Wool Remnants Half Price

Full value proved by goods at twice the prices in regular stocks.
These—mostly waist and skirt lengths, with a few whole dress patterns; so, out they scurry to new owners who will buy for the coming summer—for a year to come.

Something from every sort of goods we carry in stock among the lot; black, cream, blues, light and dark; browns, greys; and all the late stripes, checks, plaids and like fancy novelties; choose all you want at just Half

50c Fancy Mixtures at 25c

Fancy wool mixtures in hairline white and black stripes, checks and plaids; very serviceable, light in weight and excellent for knickerbock suits or skirts; 36 to 38 inches wide; fully worth 50c and 65c, for 25c

White Goods for Graduating Gowns

Some stores think they have done their full duty by simply gathering the new things—at full prices.
Different here. The new goods, yes; and the cream of the season's best, as a matter of course. And in addition our customers get such "unusuals" as these:

$1.35 Carpets for $1.15 Yard

Thoroughly practical reductions in lines where real reductions are not common; and made simply for your better acquaintance with this big Rug Section of ours, on the Third Floor.

Good quality Wilton velvet carpets of quality made elsewhere for $1.35 or even more, a yard; saved, lined and laid, for only $1.15

Matching patterns in stair and hall carpets, if you want those, too.

Wool and fibre mixed rugs—they're decidedly new and very practical. Inasmuch as the wool forms the color, it is absolutely fast, and likewise remarkably durable. A wool-and-fibre rug will out-wear two ordinary fibre sorts. Shown in dainty carpet patterns, all sizes, at prices according to size.

Drummers' sample carpet ends make fine little rugs for odd corners of the house. Tapestry, body Brussels, Axminster and Wilton carpets represented; in four sizes, at 60c each, and higher.

Will You Pay Wholesale Price for a Charming Kimono?

Such goods probably never sold so far below par—possibly never will again. Because it is the end of the manufacturers' season, these come to you at about the cost to make.

To describe all the different styles concerned would be almost to enumerate every garment in a regular stock, for there are dozens of designs, and few alike.
Materials are French Batistes, wool challis, silk, satins, dimities, dotted Swiss, wool and cotton crepes; made in loose and belted sacque styles, with kimono and wide graceful flowing sleeves.

Daintiest of designs in typical kimono colorings are shown—little roses, fancy stripes, dots, Oriental colorings and patterns; solid shades with wide satin bands in contrasting colors.

At regular wholesale New York prices they would cost from $8 to three dollars; here, for $2.50 to $12.50 $25; on sale $2.50 to $12.50

In the lot are a few very dainty negligee shirt and bodice wear; these, worth $10 to $17.50 $25; on sale at $5 to $10.

Linen Sets for June Brides

You can hardly imagine a bride who would not be delighted with anything so fine and perfect as these lovely matched linen sets—a cloth and a dozen napkins to match. And certainly nobody will dream that you didn't pay full price for the combination—these are "doubtful" linens. Nothing thorough is allowed to creep into these stocks.

Various designs may be had in any of the three combinations; we happen to have rather more of these particular sizes than we care to keep in stock; and we'd much rather sell them to individuals than to our large hotel trade.

$7.75—VALUE $10.40—A handsome cloth, 2x3 1/2 yards; and one dozen three-quarter dinner size napkins in matching designs.

$10.35—VALUE $15.00—Cloth 2x2 1/2 yards; and one dozen three-quarter dinner size napkins to match.

$8.75—VALUE $9.00—Cloth 2x3 yards; and one dozen three-quarter dinner size napkins to match.

PAY ME WHEN I CURE YOU
Weakness means that there is some functional derangement, the direct result of inflammation, enlargement or excessive activity of the prostate gland (the nerve center of the reproductive parts), brought on by early dissipation or resulting from some improperly treated contracted disease. This condition cannot possibly be removed by internal medicine, and any tonic system of treatment that stimulates the activity of the function can but result in aggravating the real ailment. This is a scientific fact. My own original system of treatment is based on a scientific method of treatment. I employ neither tonics nor stimulants. I treat the cause of the weakness. EAGLES WEEP FOR DEPARTED.

Impressive Ceremonial for Those Who Are Gone.

Many Attend Order's Annual Lodge of Grief.

Senator Dodge Delivers an Eloquent Oration.

With solemn and impressive ceremonial Los Angeles Aerie No. 102, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held its annual memorial service at Eagles' Hall yesterday afternoon. A large and reverent audience took part in the exercises, which were conducted by the officers of the aerie.

The service began with the playing by the orchestra of "Nearer My God to Thee." Rev. S. E. Foster then sang "Crossing the Bar," after which he offered prayer.

The most impressive ceremony was the calling of the roll of the departed by the secretary of the aerie. In a clear voice, the names of members who had died during the past year were announced. After the calling of each name, the orchestra played a plaintive chord.

At the conclusion of the roll call, the secretary made a brief address. A suitable musical programme followed, the closing number being the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee" by the audience. Addresses were made by State Senator W. W. Dodge of Iowa, Mayor, President of Omaha Aerie, No. 25, and Rex B. Goodall, Past Worth President of San Bernardino Aerie, No. 20.

THE MASTER'S WILL.

Senator Dodge said in part:

"In response to the call of brotherly love and fraternal duty, we are assembled to honor the memory of our departed brothers. Does it not almost require the touch of a rude hand to awaken us to a realization that our brothers whose friendship we treasured and whose hearts were throbbing with sympathy for those within the shadow of sorrow, are with us no more. But such is the will of Him who watches the fall of every sparrow that we of flesh and blood are not to know at what moment the ill messenger with the inverted torch shall beckon us to depart for that shore, touched by the mysterious sea that never yet has borne on any wave the image of a homeward sail."

"It is a beautiful custom, as a part of the memorial exercises of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, to read, amidst solemn silence, the names of our departed brothers. In loving obedience to this fraternal duty we are giving visible expression to our determination that our brothers, though out of sight, are not lost to the darkness of forgetfulness. This impressive exercise gives rise to reflections near and dear to the heart of every Eagle."

"Eaglesdom is the applied doctrine of the Savior 'that all men are brothers,' and as such are entitled to aid, comfort and solace when their homes are desecrated by the gloom of financial reverses or their hearts are bowed down with sorrow as death leaves them to mourn loneliness in a vacant chair. It is in these moments of deepest grief that kind words and brotherly Eagles help brighten lives and make light heavy burdens."

A SHINING BEACON.

"In the light of the present hour it is not to be considered strange that, as one stands in the valley of contemplation and views the majestic range of fraternalism, the Fraternal Order of Eagles stands out like a solitary peak, brilliant as a pillar of fire by night, attracting the attention of the eyes of those who behold it. It is a shining beacon, the value of liberty, the love of truth, the obligations which justice imposes and the doctrine of equality, the essence of brotherhood."

"The Fraternal Order of Eagles teaches that the Holy Bible is the foundation of all truth and justice and the flag of our country is the emblem of liberty and equality. It is to be wondered at that he who receives inspiration for right living from the sacred pages of the Holy Book and his love of country, arrived yesterday and is a guest at the Alexandria."

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Brander of San Diego, F. L. Holland of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Atkinson of Yokohama, are registered at the Van Nuys.

of his health. He is accompanied by Mrs. Dodge. As a legislator and as a writer, Senator Dodge has gained fame, reflecting credit on his state, who were prominent men in their day. His father, the late Senator Chester Dodge, was the first Congressional delegate from Iowa, and was one of the first United States Senators elected from that State, also the first Senator known to have been born west of the Mississippi River. On the day following his resignation from the United States Senate, in 1885, he was appointed by President Pierce as Minister to the Republic of Mexico. Upon his return to the United States some years later he was elected Mayor of Burlington, Iowa.

The father of this distinguished man (grandfather to Senator Dodge now in Los Angeles) also had a notable career. He was a member of the Wisconsin Territorial Governor of Wisconsin, and a soldier of renown. On the admission of Wisconsin as a State, he was elected to the United States Senate, and later was re-elected. Like his son, he passed the last years of his life in Iowa.

Moss Covered Buckets

When we see some of the fabrics and methods of tailoring used by some establishments, we are reminded of the "old growth of moss and the old mill beside," etc.

Old methods and out-of-date fabrics have no place here. Best obtainable in our policy—best fabrics, best help, best system—and with all reliability.

A great many people make the mistake of assuming that because Ivory Soap costs only a few cents a cake, it "isn't good enough to use for one's hands and face."

Why isn't it? Good materials properly combined, make good soap; and the materials used in the manufacture of Ivory Soap are the best.
